

2021 RISK 360 Conference Evaluation

General Session #3: Stop Being A Leader. Start Being THE Leader.

Session Evaluation

	Excellent Score=5	Good Score=4	Satisfactory Score=3	Fair Score=2	Poor Score=1		Response total	Average score
Overall session content	72.13% (88)	18.03% (22)	9.84% (12)	0% (0)	0% (0)		122	4.62
Stated learning objectives	68.85% (84)	24.59% (30)	5.74% (7)	0.82% (1)	0% (0)		122	4.62
Stated prerequisite requirements were appropriate and sufficient	67.77% (82)	24.79% (30)	7.44% (9)	0% (0)	0% (0)		121	4.60
Program materials were relevant	69.67% (85)	22.13% (27)	8.2% (10)	0% (0)	0% (0)		122	4.62
Program materials contributed to the achievement of the learning objectives	69.67% (85)	21.31% (26)	9.02% (11)	0% (0)	0% (0)		122	4.61
Length of the session	72.13% (88)	20.49% (25)	7.38% (9)	0% (0)	0% (0)		122	4.65
Overall experience with this session	71.9% (87)	19.01% (23)	8.26% (10)	0.83% (1)	0% (0)		121	4.62
Average rating								4.62

Statistics based on 122 respondents;

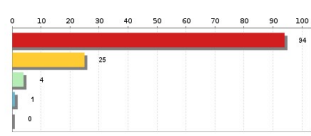

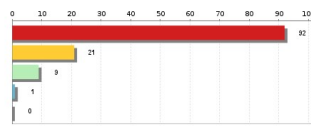

Please provide any additional comments or suggestions about this session/topic.

#	Responses	Response total
2	Best session of the entire conference!	17
15	awesome I left the session with note galore
17	Very engaging and relevant presenter. Provided several ideas that can be taken back home and potentially used to help improve our team.
24	Great presentation.
28	Great material and how to incorporate it - might have been the best session of the conference.
34	Enjoyed this session very much. Different take on leadership and action.
36	Thought provoking advice
39	Great job of providing some practical ideas that anyone can use to become a more effective leader.
42	Best presentation of the conference. Several great take-aways that we will implement on our team immediately.
44	Loved the content, loved the message...took a lot away...BUT it was a LOT of content, perhaps too much. While all the ideas were good, there were so many lists of 3 to remember that I felt a bit overwhelmed.
64	Provided several key takeaways to implement or take home and share.
67	Great session!!
82	My favorite session. I liked the easy to remember items (3 Fs, 3 Cs). Big takeaway for me was re-living your stories.
87	Of course Ryan was an awesome speaker but I LOVED the message and hope to read one of his books soon!
99	NA
100	Very motivating. Can be used in many areas of life.
123	I enjoyed this very much. It reminded me of some key strategies that I should be using as a manager that I had forgotten about.

Statistics based on 17 respondents;

Please rate the Speaker(s)

Ryan Avery

	Excellent Score=5	Good Score=4	Satisfactory Score=3	Fair Score=2	Poor Score=1		Response total	Average score
Knowledge of subject matter	75.81% (94)	20.16% (25)	3.23% (4)	0.81% (1)	0% (0)		124	4.71
Overall rating of the speaker	74.8% (92)	17.07% (21)	7.32% (9)	0.81% (1)	0% (0)		123	4.66
Average rating							4.68

Statistics based on 124 respondents;

Please provide any additional comments or suggestions for the speaker.

		Response total
#	Responses
9	Ryan was very engaging and turned a subject matter that is very common in speaking engagements into something that was new and interesting.
15	phenomenal speakers. more of him
16	Great Material - takes leadership to the next level.
28	Great energy and stories, really connected and got interaction from the group.
34	Spoke a bit too fast at times, but I loved the quick wit and stories to emphasize the points.
35	Did the speaker actually spend over 2 hours on hold to change Delta airline flight or just use the internet to change the flight?
39	Articulate, easy to listen to.
42	Ryan Avery brought the value. Great job with several small things that we can do today to enhance our leadership.
44	Ryan was a GREAT speaker, hilarious and engaging...and his content was strong! My biggest recommendation would be to simplify the content and try other strategies than lots of sets of 3. My WOW was Champion, Coach, and Cheerleader...and I LOVE it!	16
45	Too generic, too motivational, prefer more realistic applicable content delivered in a somber, level work shop type methodology.
50	This was my favorite session of the conference. Would definitely be interested in follow up sessions with Ryan regarding more details of team leading.
67	Excellent presenter!!
74	Mr. Avery stood on the floor of a crowded room and didn't move more than a few paces. As a result, seeing him, his motions, facial expressions, etc. were difficult and reduced the enjoyability of what was a really good conversation. The stage wasn't that tall and he could have been seen by more if he had actually used it.
77	Walked away with nuggets of information to implement.
82	A+++ , great speaker, and great topic.
99	Really enjoyed this speaker

Statistics based on 16 respondents;